Centrum Consulting forms strategic alliance with Quanterra Global to strengthen presence around the world.

Centrum Consulting, a leading independent professional services firm specialising in transfer pricing and international consulting services in Turkey announces its strategic partnership with Quanterra Global, one of the world's leading independent transfer pricing advisory firms. This alliance will leverage the companies' respective strengths in transfer pricing and business advisory to empower MNEs with appropriate, tailor-made transfer pricing solutions.

Richard Slimmen, Managing Director of Quanterra Global, adds that the close cooperation with Centrum Consulting strengthens Quanterra Global's transfer pricing capabilities across the globe. "Centrum Consulting brings valuable expertise and experience, including substantial knowledge of the business environment, both locally and internationally. We all highly value a close collaboration with clients and with each other."

Ramazan Biçer, head of Centrum Consulting's Transfer Pricing Practice, said, "Turkey's companies are becoming increasingly international. That, coupled with recent changes to Turkish transfer pricing legislation and its greater enforcement, has led to increased demand for transfer pricing services by Turkey's clients. We are convinced that, with the addition of Centrum Consulting to the Quanterra Global Alliance, yet more coverage is created to provide our clients with expert worldwide transfer pricing advice."
